Recognising that activities entail elements of personal risk, that the YWCA and its employees undertake strict practices to oversee safety and are covered by public liability insurance, I willingly participate in this activity. I agree that in the case of emergency, medical and transport arrangements will be made on my behalf and I will be responsible for any costs. In signing this I understand that once I have joined the program I am committed to abide by expected standards of conduct. If I fail to meet these expected standards, I accept that YWCA staff will take appropriate action, which may include, but is not limited to, being asked to leave the program. I am responsible for organizing my own transport from the Clubhouse and should I leave the program for any reason, including being asked to leave, YWCA and its staff will not be held responsible.

Clubhouse Parental Consent form

The YWCA Canberra Clubhouse is an innovative, creative, out-of-school learning space where young people from underserved communities can work with adult mentors to develop new skills, explore their own ideas, and build confidence in themselves through the use of technology.

The Clubhouse strives to provide equal opportunities and empower youth by providing full access to resources and equipment, while promoting the importance of healthy, respectful and consistent relationships. It's a creative learning environment that nurtures a diverse community of lifelong learners, producers and makers.

You must return a signed parental consent form in order to attend the YWCA Canberra Clubhouse – A Tuggeranong Youth Initiative as well as returning a completed sign up form.
